

Tram Concession Manager

Hours: 37 hours per week
Contract: Fixed Term Contract – March 2024
Salary: £45,741 - £56,258 per annum
Head office: Sheffield

The South Yorkshire Mayoral Combined Authority (SYMCA) brings together the local authorities of Barnsley, Doncaster, Rotherham and Sheffield and the private sector through the Local Enterprise Partnership (LEP). These bodies together serve the communities and businesses of South Yorkshire. From transport to housing, from business growth to skills, the SYMCA has a great story to tell. We have ambitions to deliver recovery and renewal for people, businesses and places across South Yorkshire after the COVID pandemic.

We are currently recruiting a Tram Concession Manager to lead and manage the team responsible for the delivery of the tram concession, and to support the development and delivery of plans in relation to the tram assets and future operating model.

Ideally you will have a good knowledge of the light and/or heavy rail industry, along with awareness of relevant legislation and its application, with a proven background in the management of operational plans for a transport operator.

Working closely with a range of internal and external stakeholders you will work collaboratively to ensure operational requirements are incorporated into the design of major projects.

You should be a strong leader as well as highly motivated, innovative and creative thinker, with the ability to meet and embrace changing circumstances and demands, you will also need to demonstrate you are a credible communicator with well developed negotiating and relationship management skills. You will also possess the skills to lead and motivate the existing tram team.

In return, we offer a competitive salary, hybrid working, access to a Local Government Pension Scheme and the chance to be part of an organisation where you can really make a difference. Located in a vibrant city centre location, we are well-placed for transport links and encourage employees to take advantage of a range of benefits, including active travel facilities. We believe in a healthy work/life balance.
